

JEAN MICHEL GUARNERI JOINS THE WAREHOUSE LOGISTICS OPERATOR, CEPL

FREDERIC MANCION SUCCEEDS HIM AT THE HEAD OF SAVOYE

Chairman of SAVOYE since November 2006, Jean-Michel GUARNERI, has decided on a new course of his career while still remaining in the logistics sector. From 15 March 2010, he will then be taking over as co-Chairman of the Management Board at "Compagnie Européenne de Prestations Logistiques" (CEPL).

Jean-Michel GUARNERI devoted 20 years with enthusiasm to the Groupe Legris Industries where he started in 1989 in the Potain division (tower and mobile cranes). He joined the management of SAVOYE in 1995, where he was in charge of the automated storage activity and then created and developed in 2004, the a-SIS company, software editor for the Supply Chain, and finally became Chairman of SAVOYE in 2006.

During this time, he largely contributed to the progress of SAVOYE in the product & process range, organization and international development

Frédéric MANCION, Vice-Chairman of SAVOYE, succeeds him at the head of SAVOYE.

Frédéric MANCION, aged 44, is a graduate of the French engineering school, Supelec. After beginning his career with Andersen Consulting, he moved on to manage a logistics platform near Paris for Hays Logistique France, then to SAP France where he worked in sales.

He joined Savoye division in 2001 first as Sales Director France, then Business Director for France and Southern Europe, becoming a member of Savoye's Executive Committee.

From February 2007 on, Frédéric MANCION was Vice-Chairman of Savoye and at the head of the software editor, a-SIS.

Being well acquainted with SAVOYE and the challenges to bear, supported by a motivated and proven team, Frédéric MANCION takes over as Chairman of SAVOYE to continue its development by emphasizing innovation, integration and international expansion, especially in the USA, from this year.
